ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of EHM Limited to ensure that our business practices protect's the welfare of our employees and the communities in which we operate. Excellence in environmental performance is consistent with our business objectives and we believe that the environmental management policy set out below embraces the standards that we would wish from all our business activities. Our activities have been defined as: -

"The provision of health and personal protective equipment, traffic management systems, clothing and tools to the construction and associated industries."

EHM Limited has adopted the following principles to implement our environmental policy for its operations.

- Ensure that the environmental impacts of our operations are documented and that the appropriate programmes are implemented to minimise these impacts.
- Comply with all applicable environmental legal and compliance obligations alongside business requirements, to develop relationships with environmental regulators, our suppliers and contractors and the local community to ensure that this policy is maintained and monitored.
- Design and alter our management systems or equipment to protect the environment and prevent pollution, whilst reducing our waste generation and energy use.
- Communicate this policy to, and foster environmental responsibility among, our employees; providing appropriate training and encourage employees to introduce initiatives to complement our environmental policies.
- Be open and responsive to environmental expectations and the concerns of our employees, government agencies and the public by providing and publishing relevant information about our environment policy and the environmental impacts of our operations.
- Regard sound environmental management as an integral part of our total quality commitment and to apply the policy of constant improvement to all our activity.
- Ensure our employees are aware of our Environmental Management Policy and to encourage them to adopt similar principles.
- Establish clearly defined objectives and targets that address the issues relevant to the company operations to ensure continual improvement. These will be determined and reviewed within the Management review meeting.
- Our management systems provide the framework for setting objectives. These objectives and targets will be monitored and audited as an integral part of our activities

Changes to any of the company's activities or areas of operation will be planned and undertaken within the framework of the Integrated Management System.
